REPORT

The Department of Gender Studies observed Central Excise Day with great enthusiasm on 24th February 2025. The event aimed to raise awareness about the importance of the central excise system in the nation's economy and promote integrity and accountability in public services. A significant highlight of the event was the pledge ceremony, where all students solemnly took an oath not to accept or offer any bribe in any form, reaffirming their commitment to honesty and anti-corruption values. The program concluded with a group discussion on ethical practices and their impact on society, leaving a lasting impression on the participants.
