Write-up:

The Red Ribbon Club of Thiagarajar College, Madurai, conducted its Inauguration Ceremony and Orientation Programme for the new Part-V Club on 17th September 2025 at Pandithamani Arangam. The event was scheduled between 1:00 PM and 2:00 PM and witnessed active participation from students and faculty members.

The Programme commenced with a warm welcome by the organizing team, followed by the inaugural session. The event was presided over by Dr. D. Pandiaraja, Principal of Thiagarajar College, who emphasized the vision and mission of the Red Ribbon Club.

The programme highlighted the importance of youth involvement in spreading awareness about HIV/AIDS, promoting healthy lifestyles, and creating a responsible student community committed to social welfare.

Part-V officers, Dr. P. Anbarasi and Dr. C. M. Archana both were explained the objectives of the Red Ribbon Club, its role in channelizing the energy of young students toward service activities, and the various awareness programs planned under the initiative. His words inspired the students to take up leadership roles and actively contribute to the club's functioning.

They detailed the activities and responsibilities expected from new members and motivated them to participate enthusiastically. The Programme concluded with an interactive session and a vote of thanks. Overall, the inauguration successfully introduced students to the Red Ribbon Club, setting a strong foundation for future initiatives.

The poster features the Thiagarajar College logo on the top left, the college name in the center, and a 77th anniversary emblem on the top right. Below these are logos for NIRF and the University of Health Care. The central text invites attendees to the inauguration ceremony for the new Part - V Club. The Red Ribbon Club name is prominently displayed with ribbon icons. A pink rounded rectangle contains the venue and date: Pandithamani Arangam, September 17th, 2025, from 1:00 PM to 2:00 PM. At the bottom, three individuals are listed: Dr. P. Anbarasi and Dr. C.M. Archana as event in-charge, Dr. K. Sathiyadash as Dean SW & CCA, and Dr. D. Pandiaraja as Principal. A decorative border is at the bottom.
